

Journey Management

Duration:	1 Day
Who For:	Compulsory for company and contractor personnel who are responsible for the operational management of driving activities and contractor HSE Advisors Can also be tailored to fit the requirements of other organisations and their local conditions
Aim	The aim of the course is to impart to each course nominee their roles and responsibilities and accountabilities with respect to journey management of transport operations to ensure that the risks and accidents are reduced, and to enable suitable and swift emergency response in case of an emergency.
Objectives:	Upon successful completion of this course the attendee will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Define the role, responsibilities and accountabilities of company Contract Holders company and contractor Supervisory personnel with respect to journey management• Describe the main elements and application of the company journey management system.• Plan complex interior journeys using the company journey management time map including necessary time stops
Contents:	Roles and responsibilities, Journey management procedures, Route planning, Breaks and rest periods, Emergency response, Practical exercise, Performance monitoring and improvement
Certification:	Successful attendees will receive an PETRO-TEC Certificate.
Venue:	PETRO-TEC or at client's premises