

Road Safety Management

Duration:	1 Day
Who For:	Compulsory for company and contractor staff who are responsible for the operational management of driving activities and contractor HSE Advisors Can also be tailored to fit the requirements of other organisations and their local conditions
Aim	The course addresses roles and responsibilities of company Contract Holders and Contractor Supervisory personnel related to the management of road safety. The course shall make personnel aware of the company's road safety management systems, company/national standards with respect to driver competence, vehicle specifications and operations. The course will provide personnel with methods that may be used to improve driving performance.
Objectives:	Upon successful completion of this course the attendee will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Define the role, responsibilities and accountabilities of company Contract Holders company and contractor Supervisory personnel with respect to the management of road safety• Describe the main elements and application of company road safety management systems including the Transport Operations Manual• Describe company standards for driver training and assessment, vehicle specifications and operation• Describe methods that may be used to improve driving performance
Contents:	Company and national Driving regulations, Roles and responsibilities, Transport management procedures, training and assessment, performance monitoring and improvement
Certification:	Successful attendees will receive an PETRO-TEC Certificate
Venue:	PETRO-TEC or at client's premises